Hi,

Make sure that your Path Environmental variable contains path to your VS installation directory - For example

"C:\Program Files (x86)\Microsoft Visual Studio
10.0\Common7\IDE\devenv.exe must be in your Path variable.
Otherwise you must type the complete path

"C:\Program Files (x86)\Microsoft Visual Studio
10.0\Common7\IDE\devenv.exe"

I hope this helps.

Munir

Please correct the path(exclude the red-colored part from the path Environmental variable)

Hi,

Make sure that you're giving correct path for IDE folder - I just gave you an example for the path.

Hi,

Please make sure that the path you're giving contains devenv.exe.

its containing
it hasn't to do with the path...i tried all the possibilities:|nothing

The most likely problem I see, is Munir mistakenly wrote "C:\" instead of "D:\" on the path. Open up cmd.exe and run the following code, make sure you include the quotes as well:

"D:\Program Files (x86)\Microsoft Visual Studio 10.0\Common7\I

If that does NOT work, then the path is incorrect. Otherwise if it runs, the base directory (\IDE) will work in PATH.

Yes, Please make sure you're giving correct path in 'PATH' variable.
